

Wings of the Heart

by Reverend Callender

Give my heart wings that I may fly away with Thee

Do not look upon my wrong but upon the Love You poured out for me

I have no peace without Your embrace but only that which I have experienced through Your grace

Where is the love I had for Thee? My heart longs that my love to be restored to me - the love I had for Thee

Where is the Love I long for? Let my desire be for You only that my heart may see again Your Love and Passion

Oh give my heart wings that I may again fly away with Thee!
